

It is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Frank E. Lipp, a citizen of the United States, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $7,301.36 representing the amount of overpayments of salary received by the said Frank E. Lipp for the period from July 2, 1945, through October 31, 1945, as a result of administrative error. In the event of settlement of the accounts of any military or naval officer of the United States, this credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to the said Frank E. Lipp, the sum of $7,301.36 in full satisfaction of the sum of any amounts received or withheld from him on account of the overpayments referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered in connection with any claim or matter on account of service rendered in connection with the United States Armed Forces from the years 1940 to 1946.

PRIVATE LAWS

SECOND SESSION, EIGHTY-NINTH CONGRESS

Private Law 89-215

AN ACT

For the relief of Frank E. Lipp.

March 1, 1966
[S. 1407]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding any statute of limitations pertaining to suits against the United States, or any lapse of time, or bars of laches or any prior judgment of the United States Court of Claims, jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Court of Claims to hear, determine, and render judgment upon the claim of Frank E. Lipp arising out of his service with the United States Armed Forces from the years 1940 to 1946.

Frank E. Lipp.

SEC. 2. Suit upon the claim may be instituted at any time within one year after the date of the enactment of this Act. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as an inference of liability on the part of the United States. Except as otherwise provided herein, proceedings for the determination of such claim, and review and payment of any judgment or judgments thereon shall be had in the same manner as in the case of claims over which such court has jurisdiction under section 1491 of title 28 of the United States Code.

Approved March 1, 1966.

62 Stat. 940.
